Contacts

A director's name or email is recorded only when it is printed with the title band director on a school, district, or booster site. Anything less is left blank on purpose.

Five decisions we need from you

- 1 Is the Universal Orlando Veterans Day date confirmed, and for which year?
- 2 How many bands can it take, and is there a size or audition requirement?
- 3 Who do you reach first: director, booster president, or district fine-arts lead?
- 4 Does Florida-first geography match how you sell, or should Texas rank higher?
- 5 Any schools already under contract, or never to be contacted?

What is still open

PARTIAL

Macy's and Chicago official lineups. Both sites block automated access; Macy's appearances come from news reports so far. Four pages saved in a normal browser fills in both.

PARTIAL

Contacts. One director email and three names met the strict rule. Your call on whether a district staff-directory entry counts.

PARTIAL

41 schools without a state, 60 without a website in federal records; no contact search was possible for them.

Refreshed each March, October, and November as lineups are announced.
